05/128 Countryside Officers Report

Cllr. Hickie gave a comprehensive report on the activities of STROWP. Members were surprised to hear that Randlay Parish Council had resolved not to renew their STROWP membership and there was concern that this would jeopardise the security of the project due to reduced funding.

The Clerk was asked to place the matter of STROWP funding on the next planning agenda.

Cllr. Chetwood thanked Cllr. Hickie for attending the STROWP meeting and for his encouraging report.

Cllr. Hickie reported on the necessity for adequate lighting in the vicinity of the Aqueduct and it was resolved that a delegation from Council consisting of Cllrs. Hickie and Haire and the Clerk should meet with the Borough officer on site at an agreed date and report any necessary progress back to Council.
